

Forecast For Baltimore And Vicinity

The official forecast for today in Baltimore and vicinity is for rain, followed by fair weather in the afternoon, and for tomorrow partly cloudy weather, with light to fresh south winds.

Foreign Affairs.

A French cruiser is prepared to bombard Casablanca in case of any more anti-European attacks.

Reports of Turks killing Persians were sent out from Teheran.

Jacques Simon, a silk merchant, committed suicide in the cathedral at Anvers.

City And Suburban.

Ex-Gov. Frank Brown made a statement finally eliminating himself from the Governorship contest.

The Municipal Reservoir Commission will condemn the Oler and Vickers sites.

Building Inspector Preston, in his report to the Lexington Market Commission opposes a new market building.

Mr. Joshua W. Lynch, secretary of the Seventh Ward Democratic Club, wrote to the Mayor objecting to the employment by the Sewerage Commission of Mr. Edward G. Birge, of Wisconsin, as a bacteriologist.

Union tunnel was declared safe by Building Inspector Preston.

It was announced that the first Southern Pacific steamer will sail from Baltimore for New Orleans August 26.

Mr. John M. Hering declared the wave of prohibition which swept over Georgia is coming this way.

Mr. James T. Miller has purchased nearly five acres of land in the Southwestern section, which he will probably improve with dwellings.

The Baltimore bankers returned from their trip of inspection through the Fairmont coal region of West Virginia.

Dr. William T. Howard left the bulk of his estate to his widow and to the children of his deceased brother, John Howard.

Mr. James P. Rock bequeathed $6,000 to Cardinal Gibbons for the erection of a chapel as a memorial to Mrs. Rock.

Patrolman Edward Hanson found his wife dead on the floor of his home.

Mrs. Christina Nenadel, while temporarily insane, strangled her baby boy and girl.

Mrs. Anna N. Story, wife of Retired Patrolman Pere W. Story, 1736 Oliver street died of injuries received July 8, when she shot herself.

Mr. Upton W. Dorsey, a well-known retired ticket agent, was found dead on his brother's estate at Sykesville.

Maryland.

Republican county conventions were held in various parts of the State and were, as a general thing, harmonious.

Dixon's Tavern, one of the most noted landmarks of Queen Anne's county, was burned.

Three new members of the Brunswick Town Council were elected after a warm campaign.

National Affairs.

Acting Secretary Newberry referred to the Department of Justice the case of a firm of junk dealers alleged to have given short weight in buying navy yard waste.

Government officials consider a joke the report that a Canadian army officer with a following of filibusters has planted the Union Jack on Isle Royale, in Lake Superior.

The threatened building strike did not materialize in Washington, pending arrangements for a general sympathetic strike.

The S. R. Washer Grain Company has asked the Interstate Commerce Commission to investigate charges against the Missouri Pacific Railway.

Several submarines of the Octopus type will be sent to the Philippines.

Virginia And West Virginia.

Attorney-General Anderson, of Virginia, issued a statement showing just what action was taken in the State's railroad rate cases.

A big crowd of Knights of Pythias and Knights of Columbus is at Jamestown.

Chaplain Jones, before a court-martial at the Norfolk Navy Yard, was indicted by the Norfolk grand jury on a charge of grand larceny.

The First National Bank of Lynchburg will build a $70,000 home.

Miscellaneous.

Further assaults on women and girls in New York led to mob violence and attempts at lynching.

Many persons greeted William D. Heywood at Denver and congratulated him on his acquittal.

Anna Markowitz, a Jewish girl, was strangled at Dayton, Ohio, by a man who nearly killed her escort.

Governor Comer, of Alabama, is expected to send out warrants for the arrest of Southern Railway agents, as the State has revoked the line's charter.

Commander Peary says he is prepared to stay in the North three years if he does not find the Pole this season.

John D. Archbold made a statement for the Standard Oil Company criticising Herbert Knox Smith's report on the trust.

Richard Mansfield is said to be enjoying his rest at Saranac Lake, and is able to see friends.

Judge Landis made the injunction against the Church and School Furniture Trust permanent.

Governor Cummins, of Iowa, declared for tariff reform and against overcapitalization of railroads.

Where To Find Today's News.

The classification of THE SUN's news today is as follows:

	Pages		Pages
Gen. Telegraph.....	1, 2, 5	Local.....	6, 7, 8, 9, 12
Foreign.....	2	Sporting.....	10
Washington.....	2, 5	N.Y. Topics.....	3
Maryland.....	9	Markets.....	11
Virginia.....	1, 2, 9	Shipping.....	10, 11